

Youth Delivery Modes

Youth Delivery Mode	Definition
E – 4-H Club Membership	A 4-H Club is an organized group of youth, led by an adult, with a planned program that is carried on throughout all or most of the year. Clubs may meet in any location and typically have elected officers and a set of rules approved by the membership to govern the club, or for very young groups, other developmentally appropriate structures and operating processes. This may include organized community clubs, during- or after-school clubs, or military clubs.
F – 4-H Special Interest/Short Term Programs	Groups of youth meeting for a specific learning experience that involves direct teaching by extension staff or trained volunteers, including teachers. Program is not part of school curriculum. Multiple-day meetings, for example on college campuses, should be reported as short-term programs.
I – 4-H Camping programs	Youth taking part in an Extension-planned educational experience of group living in the out-of-doors. Day camping consists of multiple-day programs, with youth returning home each evening. Overnight camping includes being away from home at least one night (resident, primitive, or travel camping).
J – School Enrichment Programs	Groups of youth receiving a sequence of learning experiences in cooperation with school officials during school hours to support the school curriculum. Involves direct teaching by extension staff or trained volunteers, including teachers.
L – After School Programs using 4-H curricula/staff training	After-School educational programs offered to youth outside of school hours, usually in a school or other community center. The after-school program must be supported by Extension by training the after-school staff, infusing 4-H curricula into the program, and/or other significant support such as conducting needs assessments, evaluations, and/or resource development. The primary purpose of the program is to provide care, developmental and educational experiences for children and youth while parents are working or unavailable.
M – Instructional TV/Video/Web Program	Youth offered learning experiences through Extension via broadcast or closed circuit television, including satellite transmission, or videotape replays of such series. May also include instruction delivered by internet.

**A 4-H Youth Participant is defined as - Any youth taking part in programs provided as a result of action by extension personnel (professional, paraprofessional, and volunteer). This includes youth participating in programs conducted through 1862, 1890, and 1994 land-grant universities, EFNEP, urban gardening, and other programs that may not actually use the 4-H name and emblem with participants.
